William J. Cerynik Appointed Secretary of the Executive Committee for the Greater Phoenix Chapter of the Financial Planning Association

William J. Cerynik, Director of Business Development and Senior Wealth Advisor for Ashton Thomas Private Wealth, has been appointed Secretary of the Executive Committee for the Phoenix chapter of the Financial Planning Association (FPA). A current board member at large for the Phoenix chapter of the FPA and a past chair of the Lifelong Learning Committee, William will assume the role of Secretary on the Executive Committee in January 2018 and will serve a one-year term.

William has spent more than 20 years in the financial services industry. Utilizing Ashton Thomas' capabilities, he spends his time bringing a high level of support and service to advisors, whether solving a problem for a specific situation, bringing a fresh set of eyes to a financial plan or helping develop a specific strategy for a client. William also oversees business development and advisory practice integration efforts for the firm.
