BRANDON KAHOUN

Born and raised in Chandler, he is a native of Arizona. “I grew up here. It's my home. I'm just glad I can escape the heat occasionally in the summer. I really appreciate my California clients in July!”

Brandon is not a man of many words, but he is passionate about several things. He's an avid outdoorsman—fishing primarily—and an equally avid sports fan. He is passionate about family and spends a good deal of his free time with them. As a former pro golfer, he also knows a thing or two about competition.

“Successful
outsource things they don't have time to do”

But, Brandon's real passion is helping clients succeed financially. "Successful people outsource things they don't have time to do so they can focus on what made them successful in the first place. I enjoy working with them," he says.

Brandon started his career in banking with U.S. Bank and moved to JPMorgan Chase thereafter. Eventually, he realized his goal of becoming a financial advisor, then moved to Merrill Lynch, where he oversaw a portfolio of client accounts as part of a team. "It was a great place to learn, but ultimately I was looking for a permanent home with a culture that matched my values."

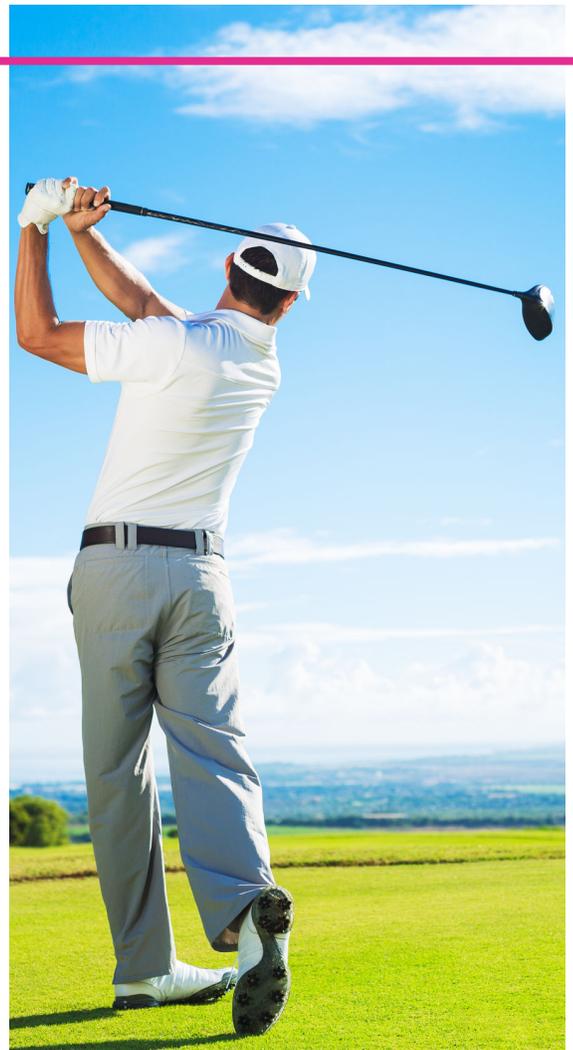

Although he briefly considering an opportunity with a startup wealth management practice, Brandon decided his clients—and he—deserved a stable environment and an experienced team to support him. After receiving offers from a handful of established local and regional wealth management firms, he selected Ashton Thomas as the right home for his clients and for him.

"I just wish I'd made this move sooner. If I'd known what I know now, I would've come to Ashton Thomas two years ago," he says in hindsight.

Brandon joined Ashton Thomas Private Wealth as a Wealth Advisor at the beginning of 2019. Today, he is focusing on clients and prospective clients from all walks of life, including professional athletes, retirees, business owners and professionals who seek to thrive financially.

“It’s really about helping people make decisions they already know are good for them. They just want assistance executing a plan that maximizes effort for results,” says Brandon.

Ashton Thomas is grateful to have Brandon as part of the team. “Brandon is a genuine self-starter and a really great guy,” says Aaron Brodt, CEO and founder of Ashton Thomas. “He brings a high level of expectation and an equally high level of delivery to his practice and to our team. We appreciate advisors who elevate everyone’s game.”
