WILLIAM CERYNIK ELECTED TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR ONEFPA ADVISORY COUNCIL

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA (December 18, 2019) – Ashton Thomas Senior Wealth Manager and Director of Business Development, William Cerynik, has been elected to the OneFPA Advisory Council's Executive Committee. Mr. Cerynik is also a board-member-at-large of the FPA of Greater Phoenix chapter.

In an effort to establish a greater connection between the Financial Planning Association® (FPA®) and its national network of 86 chapters, FPA has implemented a "participatory governance" framework for communication and idea sharing. As part of this effort, the national organization asked each chapter to appoint a liaison to a newly-formed OneFPA Advisory Council, which has been tasked with generating, discussing and working through best-practice ideas for moving the association forward into the next decade. The Executive Committee will lead the OneFPA Advisory Council and work with the FPA Board of Directors to evaluate and communicate ideas between the national board and the chapters.

Other members of the OneFPA Advisory Council's Executive Committee include:

Catherine Seeber, CFP® of the FPA of the Philadelphia Tri-State Area
Kris Tower, CFP® of the FPA of Colorado
Christopher Boyd, CFP® of the FPA of Massachusetts
Byrke Sestok, CFP® of the FPA of the Greater Hudson Valley
Craig Carnick, CFP® of the FPA of Southern Colorado
Autumn Campbell, CFP® representing the FPA NexGen community

"We are pleased to continue our firm's commitment to FPA's success," states firm CEO, Aaron Brodt. "Ashton Thomas Director of Financial Planning, Karen McDade, CFP®, currently serves on the FPA Board of Directors and the firm is also a chapter partner of the FPA of Greater Phoenix. The OneFPA initiative is an ambitious undertaking with real potential for long-term benefits. I believe William's consultative skill set in conjunction with this solid lineup of Executive Committee members can help FPA evolve in a positive direction in the months ahead."
